Charitable registration #: 11924 9126 RR0001

Below are examples of wording for a specific charitable gift.

Specific Gift

"I give the sum of $_____ to Lakeridge Health Foundation for the purpose of supporting the highest priority needs* as determined by the Foundation in consultation with the hospital".

Residual Bequest

"I give _____% of the residue of my estate to Lakeridge Health Foundation for the purpose of supporting the highest priority needs* as determined by the Foundation in consultation with the hospital."

Contingent Bequest

A Contingent Gift is a gift of all or a share of an estate contingent upon certain conditions being met, such as income being paid through a trust to a loved one for life or for a term of years before the trust can be distributed to the Foundation. With any type of bequest, the donor can direct the gift to the general purposes of the Foundation (an unrestricted gift) or to a specific fund of the Foundation (a restricted gift).

"If both (name of primary beneficiary) and (name of alternate beneficiary) predecease me, then I give the sum of $_____ (or percentage of residue or other gift) to Lakeridge Health Foundation for the purpose of supporting the highest priority needs* as determined by the Foundation in consultation with the hospital."

You may also designate your gift to a specific program area, such as the R.S. McLaughlin Durham Regional Cancer Centre, Kidney Care, Maternal/Infant care, etc. Please contact the Foundation for program funding names should you wish to designate your gift to a specific area.*
